

annual appeal

This Weekend

7th/8th October

“...It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone...” Our missionaries are a ‘keystone’ from which the message of God’s love reaches out to those who suffer the most in poverty-stricken, disaster-prone and war-torn communities throughout the developing world. More often than not they carry out their work without any recognition away from the media spotlight. Yet they are there amongst the people long before any crisis takes hold and remain long after humanitarian aid agencies have left. Your generous response to this week-end’s Catholic Mission Appeal will sustain & strengthen the ‘key stones’ of God’s kingdom. Catholic Mission is the official overseas missionary agency of our Holy Father, Pope Francis.
