REFLECTION

THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS. We see ourselves in the crowds who cried 'Hosanna to the Son of David' one day and 'Crucify him' just a few days later. Like Peter and the other disciples we can be fickle followers of Jesus. We should not, however, imitate Judas and despair at our infidelity. Rather, we should look to Jesus who allowed his blood to be poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins'. Let us praise him with grateful hearts.

Archbishop Timothy Costelloe's Easter Message

Archbishop Timothy Costelloe SDB has this week released his 2018 Easter Message, in which he talks about the gift of peace. "Peace be with you" is easy to say, but it can seem very empty to those who in fact experience little or no peace in their lives. I think of those who continue to suffer the effects of all kinds of abuse, including sexual abuse," Archbishop Costelloe says. The gift of the Lord's peace, the Archbishop continues, is exactly that: a gift. "The Lord offers it to us, but if our eyes or ears are closed to him we will not even realise it is being offered, or what kind of gift it really is. The Lord does say, after all, that the peace he offers is not like the peace the world promises - it is something deeper, and truer, and profoundly life-giving."

An Introduction To The Sacraments

Thursdays, 10am to 12pm, Newman Siena Centre (Clune Lecture Theatre).

As a pathway for the growth of our spiritual life laid out by the Church, the Sacraments are our most privileged moments of encounter with God.

This course will bring participants into a deeper understanding of each of the seven Sacraments of the Church, with a particular focus on developing a stronger awareness of their purpose and impact in our lives. Cost $45. Presenter: Ms Johanna Banks.
